

Coalition on Homelessness

Permission to Use Photos, Interviews & Information

The Coalition on Homelessness (COH) occasionally prepares presentations to promote public awareness of our work. In order to make these presentations successful, COH is asking for your help by participating and authorizing the use of any photographs, videos, or recorded or unrecorded interviews, and other information deemed necessary to demonstrate our work.

In addition to presentations, COH may use photographs of and/or other information on our members, participants and allies for newsletters, reports, displays, websites, and other public relations outreach programs. If you agree to participate in the project, your image and comments may appear on these materials.

COH does not make any financial profit from the use of any photographs, videos or recorded or unrecorded interviews or other information featuring our members, participants or allies. No financial compensation will be made to whomever is photographed or interviewed.

If you have any special concerns or questions about the use of your image, interviews or information, please let us know in the space provided below.
